DETAILED ACTION

Election/Restrictions

This application contains claims directed to the following patentably distinct species of the claimed invention: Embodiments 1 and 2 of the method and corresponding apparatus for delivering therapy represented by using the CS electrode to SVC/RA and extravascular electrode or by using the RV electrode to SVC/RA, CS, and extravascular electrode, respectively.

Applicant is required under 35 U.S.C. 121 to elect a single disclosed species for prosecution on the merits to which the claims shall be restricted if no generic claim is finally held to be allowable. Currently, there are no claims that are generic.

Applicant is advised that a reply to this requirement must include an identification of the species that is elected consonant with this requirement, and a listing of all claims readable thereon, including any claims subsequently added. An argument that a claim is allowable or that all claims are generic is considered nonresponsive unless accompanied by an election.

Upon the allowance of a generic claim, applicant will be entitled to consideration of claims to additional species which are written in dependent form or otherwise include all the limitations of an allowed generic claim as provided by 37 CFR 1.141. If claims are added after the election, applicant must indicate which are readable upon the elected species. MPEP § 809.02(a).

Should applicant traverse on the ground that the species are not patentably distinct, applicant should submit evidence or identify such evidence now of record showing the species to be obvious variants or clearly admit on the record that this is the case. In either instance, if the examiner finds one of the inventions unpatentable over the prior art, the evidence or admission may be used in a rejection under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) of the other invention.

During a telephone conversation with Timothy Bianchi on 11/19/04 a provisional election was made without traverse to prosecute the invention of embodiment 1, claims 1-5 and 11-15. Affirmation of this election must be made by applicant in replying to this Office action. Claims 6-10 and 16-20 are withdrawn from further consideration by the examiner, 37 CFR 1.142(b), as being drawn to a non-elected invention.

Applicant is reminded that upon the cancellation of claims to a non-elected invention, the inventorship must be amended in compliance with 37 CFR 1.48(b) if one or more of the currently named inventors is no longer an inventor of at least one claim remaining in the application. Any amendment of inventorship must be accompanied by a request under 37 CFR 1.48(b) and by the fee required under 37 CFR 1.17(i).

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(b) the invention was patented or described in a printed publication in this or a foreign country or in public use or on sale in this country, more than one year prior to the date of application for patent in the United States.

(e) the invention was described in (1) an application for patent, published under section 122(b), by another filed in the United States before the invention by the applicant for patent or (2) a patent granted on an application for patent by another filed in the United States before the invention by the applicant for patent, except that an international application filed under the treaty defined in section 351(a) shall have the effects for purposes of this subsection of an application filed in the United States only if the international application designated the United States and was published under Article 21(2) of such treaty in the English language.

Claims 1-3, 5, 11-13 and 15 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being clearly anticipated by Min et al (5549642).

Art Unit: 3762

Claims 1-3, 5, 11-13, and 15 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(e) as being anticipated by Swerdlow et al (6091989). Swerdlow states in column 19, lines 39-42 the claimed electrode combination used for atrial fibrillation.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 103

The following is a quotation of 35 U.S.C. 103(a) which forms the basis for all obviousness rejections set forth in this Office action:

(a) A patent may not be obtained though the invention is not identically disclosed or described as set forth in section 102 of this title, if the differences between the subject matter sought to be patented and the prior art are such that the subject matter as a whole would have been obvious at the time the invention was made to a person having ordinary skill in the art to which said subject matter pertains. Patentability shall not be negated by the manner in which the invention was made.

This application currently names joint inventors. In considering patentability of the claims under 35 U.S.C. 103(a), the examiner presumes that the subject matter of the various claims was commonly owned at the time any inventions covered therein were made absent any evidence to the contrary. Applicant is advised of the obligation under 37 CFR 1.56 to point out the inventor and invention dates of each claim that was not commonly owned at the time a later invention was made in order for the examiner to consider the applicability of 35 U.S.C. 103(c) and potential 35 U.S.C. 102(e), (f) or (g) prior art under 35 U.S.C. 103(a).

Claims 4 and 14 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over Min et al (or Swerdlow et al).

Min (or Swerdlow) discloses the claimed invention except for the extravascular electrode being a cutaneous patch. It would have been obvious to one having ordinary skill in the art at the time the invention was made to modify the electrode defibrillation system as taught by Min (or Swerdlow), with the extravascular electrode being or including a cutaneous patch since it was known in the art that electrode defibrillation systems use an extravascular electrode being or including a cutaneous patch to provide movable and/or different current fields for a particular area of the heart and/or to increase the discharge surface area and decrease the impedance to effectively defibrillate the patients heart and reduce the amount of energy needed for defibrillation.

Conclusion

The prior art made of record and not relied upon is considered pertinent to applicant's disclosure. The cited art shows several other references that could be used for a 102/103 rejection of the claims.
